Dear Gene:

My impression is that the cross town thruways are of merit if they are located on railroad rights-of-way at grade level. I am to assume that you had been opposed to this idea.

I have been involved in other projects with the Penn Central Railroad in Philadelphia, and they have advised me that they are willing to provide any assistance in working out the details. They have recently completed such a program in the northwestern section of the state.

Sincerely,

Alfred J. Zacher
